

NOTICE

This content does not involve L.A. Times editorial staff. Selections are made independent of an advertising commitment.

Barry Kurtz

Barry Kurtz
Chair, Franchise and Distribution
Practice Group
Lewitt Hackman
Franchise Law

Barry Kurtz represents franchisors, manufacturers, franchisees, and distributors in a wide range of matters, including the review and preparation of domestic and international franchise registration, and disclosure documents (FDD); work-out arrangements with distressed franchisees; the development and enforcement of systemwide standards; franchisor and franchisee disputes, and termination matters; and acquisitions and dispositions of franchised and independent units, and businesses throughout the United States.

Kurtz's familiarity with franchising spans decades and provides both domestic and international clients with a unique perspective on the issues and demands that franchised and independent business owners face in the expansion, sale, purchase, financing, and operation of their companies. He is rated 5.0 AV Preeminent, Martindale-Hubbell's highest award for legal ability and ethics. He is also a prolific author of published articles on franchise and distribution law and has provided expert witness testimony in franchise litigation and arbitration proceedings for both franchisors and franchisees.

Los Angeles Times
BUSINESS TO BUSINESS
PUBLISHING
2300 E. Imperial Highway
El Segundo, CA 90245
b2bpublishing@latimes.com

Dear Barry Kurtz,

Congratulations on being named a Visionary in our 2024 Consumer Attorneys Magazine!

Please enjoy your complimentary copy, which provides an in-depth look at several trends affecting consumers and businesses this year, including workplace issues and consumer protection changes. The magazine also visits a number of new laws that went into effect and how AI is being used to address the unique needs of the legal industry, among other updates.

Furthermore, Consumer Attorneys profiles this year's distinguished visionaries, like yourself. The attorneys listed span the legal spectrum – family law, personal injury, labor & employment, product liability, toxic torts – but each has demonstrated notable achievement in their respective fields and deserves special recognition.

The 2024 Consumer Attorneys Magazine can be read online and shared at latimes.com/b2b/consumerattorneys.

To purchase additional copies, please scan the QR code below or visit the L.A. Times online store at shoplatimes.com/b2b.

We will be promoting its publication, and we invite you to follow us:

LinkedIn: linkedin.com/showcase/latimes-b2b

Facebook: @latimesb2b

Instagram: @latimesb2b

L.A. Times B2B Publishing will continue to spotlight business trends and honor visionaries who are impacting change at their companies and in the community. Nominations are now open – visit latimes.com/b2b/nominations to make a submission.

For sponsorship or advertising opportunities, contact us at b2bpublishing@latimes.com.

Best regards,
L.A. Times B2B Publishing Team